DIVISION A - GENERAL PROVISIONS

I. Organizational Preface

This organizational structure for the implementation of The American Legion's programs is designed to involve an increased number of Legionnaires in the affairs of the Department. More involvement will develop leadership in every level; increase activity at local levels through internal communication and contact; and enhance the image of The American Legion.

All programs and activities of The American Legion as determined by the National Organization and/or the Department Convention or the Department Executive Committee shall be centered in eight (8) Commissions, and specified in Division B, hereof, to be known as:

- I. Finance Commission
- II. Internal Affairs Commission
- III. Americanism Commission
- IV. National Affairs Commission
- V. Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation Commission
- VI. Legislative Commission
- VII. Convention Commission
- VIII. Marketing Commission

The Adjutant shall assign a member of the Department staff to serve as liaison and advisor to each Commission.

A member of the Department of Iowa serving currently on a National Commission/Committee corresponding to one of the following Department Commission/Committees shall be named as an "ex officio" member of that corresponding Department Commission/Committee:

1. Americanism Commission
2. Convention Commission
3. Finance Commission
4. Internal Affairs Commission
5. Legislative Commission
6. Media & Communications Commission
7. National Security Commission
8. Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation Commission
9. Veterans Employment & Education Commission

Reimbursement for "ex officio" members will be for mileage only except as otherwise stated.

All travel for Department Officers or Department Commission/Committee members, which is not specifically authorized by the Department Operating Structure, for which reimbursement will be requested, must be approved in advance by the Department Adjutant. Requests for authorization shall be submitted on the Travel Request Authorization Form available from the Department.

Risk Management: Risk management for the Department of Iowa, particularly in the youth programs, will be structured according to the policies and procedures used for the National programs.

Any Commission/Committee member, who is inactive, may be replaced by the Department Commander. Any vacancy may be filled for the unexpired term by appointment by the Department Commander subject to ratification by the Department Executive Committee.

As the above rules and policy do not apply to the Department Liaison Committee, a separate section governing policy of said Committee is included as Division C.

II. Reimbursement for Expenses - General

Unless otherwise specifically provided herein or by action of the Department Executive Committee, reimbursement for expenses incurred, upon submission of a documented expense voucher, shall be governed by the following rules:

1. The Department Commander shall be reimbursed in full for all ordinary, necessary and customary expense incurred in the performance of his/her duties, and such expenses, except transportation, of the Commander's spouse when accompanying the Commander in attendance at the Department Annual Convention of The American Legion of Iowa, the National Convention of The American Legion, the Department Mid-Winter Conference of The American Legion of Iowa and the Washington Conference of the National Organization of The American Legion.
2. The National Executive Committee member and Alternate shall each be reimbursed in full less any reimbursement from National for expenses incurred for the National Convention, Fall National Executive Committee meeting, Washington Conference, Spring National Executive Committee meeting, expenses incurred escorting National Guests and expenses incurred attending District Conferences.
3. Department officers, other than the Commander and salaried officers, and members of all Department Commissions and Committees, shall be reimbursed for expenses incurred when traveling away from home on authorized business as follows:
 - a. Within the state of Iowa: requiring overnight lodging: Lodging allowance of $50.00 and allowable cost of transportation.
 - b. Outside the state of Iowa requiring overnight lodging: Lodging allowance of $75.00 and allowable cost of transportation.
 - c. Not requiring overnight lodging accommodations: Actual cost of meals and allowable cost of transportation.
 - d. Mileage reimbursement will be from the closest point within the state of Iowa to member's home address.
4. Expense for transportation shall be reimbursed for the cost of round-trip air or train fare at coach rate only or round-trip mileage by private automobile, over the most direct route, provided that required transportation is not otherwise arranged, furnished and/or made available by the Iowa Department. The reimbursement for cost of mileage by private automobile shall be at the rate of thirty-five (35) cents per mile.
5. The designation of the number of days for authorized meetings or activities, when used in Division B hereof, shall be interpreted as a standard of limitation (maximum) and not the basis for reimbursement for expenses.

III. Department Executive Committee

The Department Executive Committee shall meet in business sessions at least four (4) times a year as follows:

1. Following the close of each annual Department Convention, at the call of the Department Commander, primarily for immediate organization and planning purposes and to approve Department Commander appointments.
2. On a date in the Fall for the primary purpose of approving Resolutions with legislative intent for the Iowa General Assembly, as well as any other Department business.
3. On a date immediately preceding the Department Mid-Winter Conference.
4. On a date preceding each annual Department Convention and prior to the beginning of the Department's budget fiscal year of July 1st to June 30th primarily for adopting an annual budget referred to as the Spring meeting.

Reimbursed for attendance at the Fall and Spring DEC meetings will be mileage only.

For the purpose of attending the Department Executive Committee meetings and performing the functions of their office at the Mid-Winter Conference and Department Convention, the designated members are authorized days of lodging allowance for reimbursement purposes as follows:
